Emperor's Letter

Your Most Imperial Majesties, Honored Guests & Dearest Friends:

Welcome to Coronation 1987, "Land of Make Believe" and "Azteca Empire", I greet you with open arms and truly hope that this evening will be a night you will long remember. During this last year I have met some wonderful people who were level headed and down to earth and taught me to never let the Crown of State which sits upon your head to rule your lives. They taught me the meaning of being a Head of State.

Sitting down trying to place all of my thoughts on paper is something which does not come easy for me--I would like to mention everyone and all they have done but there is no room.

To my lover, friend and wife, Marlene--without her this year would not have been possible. The understanding she has given me this wonderful year. The out of town trips, overnight runs to inner city functions, sure puts a strain on a relationship. It takes one hell of a person to put up with all that. So, to my Prince Consort and Lady in Waiting to Grand Reina III and Empress XVIII-----All my love to you, Marlene.

Also, to all my loyal Court Members, Thanks for all your support and hard work this year. I know there were times when I wasn't the most patient person I could have been, but I love you all. And last but certainly not least, Thank you to all the members of the community, for without you dear people none of us would be here tonight.

Sincerely yours in Love and Unity,

Emperor IX Daddy Bob
(Robert James Colton Jr III)
